I live in Barrio Nuevo, a neighborhood of 10,000 on the outskirts of San Cristobal in the Dominican Republic.

We have no sewage systems or garbage collection in our community; as a result there are many illnesses.

Living at the orphanage I receive: A bed, hot meals, and a lot of love I receive a shower, clean clothes, and I brush my teeth. Christian education, recreational activities with an educational content and Vacation Bible School are also included. My grandpa is encouraged to be involved in the programs at the Bread of Life.

Your sponsorship will help as needed to provide; health check-ups, school tuition, uniform and supplies.

The goal at the Bread of Life is to strengthen, empower and equip my spirit, mind and body, to enable me to carry out a healthy, educated and spiritually rich life. Most importantly, everyday, I receive the love of Jesus that is desperately needed.

Extra information: Raquel is a strong little girl who loves to play. She also has one brother, Angel, and her sister Nisi lives at the orphanage with her.
